Aerial model of the new school

English is a thriving and successful department and achievement is strong at all key stages. Recent highlights include:-

Key Stage 4

- 89% of pupils achieved grade 4 and above in the challenging new specifications in English Language and Literature in 2017, and 38% achieved grade 7 and above.

- Consistently outstanding Progress scores in English.

Key Stage 5

- 100% pass rate in A Level Language and A Level Literature over the last 3 years.
- 95% A* - C in A Level courses offered by the department in 2017.

Key Stage 3

- Key Stage 3 is exceptionally strong too, with very able cohorts coming through.
- Leadership, teaching and the climate for learning in English are all strong.
- An excellent curriculum is in place.

The English Department also offers a vibrant programme of activities outside of lessons that students can get involved in. There is a well-attended creative writing club offered to KS3 and the department regularly works with the school librarian, organising author visits and participation in the North East Teenage Book Awards. Enrichment activities such as theatre visits and study sessions are also arranged regularly.

Setting Arrangements

In Year 7 students are set using a mixture of Key Stage 2 data from feeder primary schools as well as CAT scores taken in the first term. For the Key Stage 3 course the students are grouped by ability across split bands.

For the GCSE programmes in Key Stage 4, the students are also grouped by ability.

Sets are reviewed every term and updated using students' assessment performance. Class size in KS3 are typically 30 pupils in sets 1 and 2, 25 in sets 3 and 4 and 15 in set 5. GCSE classes follow the same pattern. We currently have 4 A level classes of mixed ability students.

KS3

Key Stage 3 provision is currently 6 x 1 hour lessons per 2-week cycle in Y7 and Y8 and 7 hours in Y9. Students in Year 7, 8 and 9 study from a range of texts including Shakespeare, Poetry, English Literary Heritage, Media and Non Fiction. Year 7 students currently study Shakespeare's 'A Midsummer Night's Dream', 'Changeling' by Steve Feasey, a collection of poetry from other cultures, and media and non-fiction. In Year 8 students currently study Shakespeare's 'Macbeth', War Poetry, short stories by Arthur Conan Doyle, non-fiction travel writing and 'Animal Farm' by George Orwell.

In Year 9 students currently study Shakespeare's 'Romeo and Juliet', 'Great Expectations' by Charles Dickens, 'Of Mice and Men' by John Steinbeck and 'Lord of the Flies' by William Golding and media and non-fiction.

There are comprehensive schemes of work and resources for all modules covered. Each scheme of work provides for structured learning and regular assessment. Students are encouraged to develop their skills, knowledge and understanding of English using varied approaches to learning. In During each module students complete a number of assessments.

KS4

Year 11 students have between 7 and 9 hours of English per 2 week cycle. The Department follows the new AQA Language and Literature courses. Students currently study 'A Christmas Carol', 'An Inspector Calls' 'DNA', 'Conflict and Power' and 'Love and Relationships' poetry and Shakespeare's 'Macbeth', in addition to a range of pre-19th century and contemporary non-fiction and fiction texts. Students sit 2 exams for English Language and 2 for Literature at the end of Year 11; assessment is 100% examination.

KS5

The department currently offers A Level English Language and English Literature. Key Stage 5 provision is currently 10 x 1 hour lessons per 2-week cycle per subject. This time is split equally between two members of staff.

In Literature, students follow English Literature Spec B course, studying 'King Lear', 'Richard II', 'The Great Gatsby', Ian McEwan's 'Atonement' and a selection of Poetry, .

Language students follow the AQA Spec B. Assessment is on-going with students sitting a mock exam in Years 12 and 13 with grades reported home.

We are seeking a well-organised and enthusiastic Deputy Head of English with the energy and drive to motivate students, support colleagues and share ideas as a committed team leader within a thriving department.
