SCIENCE LABORATORY TECHNICIAN To start as soon as possible

We are looking for an enthusiastic and dynamic scientist to join us in delivering high quality practical lessons and demonstrations within a flagship academic department. As a key member of the technician team, you will work with our large and friendly teaching staff to support science learning through practical activities and the use of modern technology. You will play a key role in developing practical resources, preparing and delivering practical materials, and maintaining the state of our superb laboratory facilities. In addition, there is the potential to help with learning support, classroom demonstrations, PAT, and facilities maintenance.. The successful candidate will be based primarily within the Chemistry Department but will be expected to support across the sciences and the school.

Working Hours: This is a term time only role plus 1 day for compulsory safeguarding training at the start of each academic year. 37.5 hours per week, 8.30am – 4.30pm, Monday to Friday during term time, with a 30-minute unpaid lunch break.

Salary: The salary for this role is in the region of £18k (Full Time Equivalent of c£22k) and will be pro rata to reflect the term time only status but will be reviewed in line with relevant qualifications and experience.

RGS is proud to be an equal opportunities employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment regardless of age, disability, sex, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief and marriage and civil partnerships. Whilst all applications are considered on merit, we would particularly welcome applications from black and minority ethnic candidates who are currently under-represented in our staff community.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and we expect all staff to share this commitment. All posts are subject to pre-employment checks, pre-interview references and an enhanced DBS check.
