Shaping for the future

- To help build, communicate and implement a shared vision for leadership and learning that ensures high quality teaching and learning.
- To contribute to the strategic planning process.
- To be creative and innovative to lead and support change.

Improving outcomes

- By means of target setting and the analysis of pupil data, ensure a consistent and continual school-wide focus on improving pupil outcomes.
- By use of data and pupil tracking, monitor the progress of pupils across the school.
- Line-manage the work of middle leaders to ensure an ethos of challenge and support.
- Incorporate pupils as sources of data and learning in all self-evaluation activities.
- Take a full part in the self-evaluation of the school, curriculum areas and year groups.

Developing self and others

- Share leadership, build teams and work cooperatively within and outside school to realise the school's vision.
- Treat people fairly, equitably and with dignity and respect to create and maintain a positive school culture.
- Acknowledge and celebrate the responsibilities and achievements of individuals and teams.
- Develop and maintain a culture of high expectations for self and for others and take appropriate action when performance is unsatisfactory.

Managing the organisation

- Lead on key strategic whole school areas linked to priorities as identified in the School Improvement Plan.
- Be aware of and respond to national developments in safeguarding.
- Devise and implement programmes that promote and support achievement and well-being of all pupils.
- Develop the school's partnerships with stakeholders including parents, outside agencies as well as other schools and institutions.
- Support the Headteacher, Deputy Headteachers and governors in monitoring, evaluating and reviewing the effect of school policies, and practices.
- Support the Headteacher, Deputy Headteachers and governors in monitoring and evaluating whole school priorities and targets.

Securing accountability

- Be accountable to the Headteacher and Governors for the quality of education at Northfield.
- Hold others to account for pupil progress.
- Reflect honestly on personal contribution to school achievements and take account of feedback from others and ensure a personal development plan.
- Be committed to the school's three core values of respect, honesty and resilience.
- Be a positive role model to all pupils, staff and parents.
- Take a leading role in developing colleagues through the school's appraisal and support programmes.

Self evaluation of all the above will be carried out as a continual process.
